No. ANK/327/1/2011

The Embassy of India presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the republic of Turkey and has the honour to state the following:

2. The Kendriya Hindi Sansthan, Agra, under the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt of India proposes to award scholarships to four Turkish nationals to study Hindi in the Sansthan in Agra in India for the academic session 2011-12 commencing from August 01, 2011.

3. The candidates selected for award of scholarship will be granted admission by the Sansthan at its headquarters at Agra. It would also make efforts to provide hostel accommodation to the selected candidates on nominal charges of Rs. 250 (under US$ 6) per month to meet the expenditure on water, electricity, cleaning etc. However, expenditure on food that will be provided in the mess will have to be borne by the candidate. The to and fro international airfare (Economy class) by the shortest route will be provided by the Kendriya Hindi Sansthan, Agra for the selected candidates. Other aspects relating to the financial support provided to selected students may please be seen at item VII of the enclosed requirements for admission. Stay in hostel as well as to join the mess is compulsory, and no student will be allowed to stay outside. Only vegetarian food will be served in the hostel. Candidates who join will not be permitted to return to Turkey without completing the full academic term.

4. Age of the candidates should be between 21 and 35 years, and they must have studied Hindi for at least one year. Winter vacation will be for roughly 15 days between the last week of December and the first week of January. A total of 15 days of leave/holidays will be provided during the entire session between 1 August 2011 and 30 April 2012, and a maximum of

5 days will be granted at any single occasion by the concerned Head of Department. Leave will be granted if supported by a Medical certificate. Other details of the programme are in enclosure.

5. Two Copies each of the brochures and application forms for admission to the Kendriya Hindi Sansthan are enclosed.

6. It is requested that enclosed application forms be filled-in by the students interested in studying Hindi in Agra during the academic session 2011-12 starting on August 1, 2011, and ending on April 30, 2012. It is further requested that the filled in application forms be returned to this Embassy by April 15, 2011 so that the application forms can be forwarded to the Kendriya Hindi Sansthan in Agra for their consideration. To ensure appropriate gender balance, it would be preferable to include two boys and two girls in the above – mentioned programme. It would be deeply appreciated if efforts are made to ensure that the candidates are identified immediately, and applications are received from them by the due dates of 15 April 2011.

The Embassy of India avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Turkey the assurances of its highest consideration.

Kendriya Hindi Sansthan (Central Institute of Hindi, Agra)

Introduction

The Central Institute of Hindi (Kendriya Hindi Sansthan) was established in 1962. It is an autonomous organization of the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India and is governed by the Central Board of Hindi Teaching (Kendriya Hindi Shikshan Mandal). Besides facilitation of Hindi Teaching-Training and higher studies in Hindi language and literature and comparative linguistics, its aim is promotion and propagation of Hindi at the national and international levels. The Institute has designed courses for teachers of non-Hindi speaking States as well as for countries like Sri Lanka and Afghanistan.

The Institute conducts, besides Hindi teaching, research on various aspects of Hindi such as contrastive linguistics, applied linguistics, lexicography, language teaching, stylistics, translation, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics and culture. Many books on these subjects have been published by the Institute. The Institute has also brought out its own Text books as well as other useful books for Indian and foreign students. A research journal Gaveshna is brought out by the Institute and it also publishes research studies of high grade in the form of monographs and books. The work on Hindi Lok shabdakosh (Dictionary of the languages/Dialects of Hindi family) in 48 volumes is afoot. In addition to this, various Orientation and Refresher programmes run by the Regional Centres of the Institute have been contributing greatly in the growth of the Institute. With a view to enhance academic and intellectual growth of the Institute, all India Seminars organized on various subjects are the leading academic activities of the Institute.

The Headquarter of the Institute is situated at Agra in the State of Uttar Pradesh and its Regional Centres are at Delhi, Hyderabad, Shillong, Guwahati, Mysore, Dimapur, Bhuvaneshwar and Ahmedabad. The Central Institute of Hindi has specialized in training Hindi teachers of Non-Hindi speaking area. It also organizes short-term intensive orientation courses for them.

The Institute has developed several courses for teaching of Hindi as a foreign language through the latest language technology such as Digital Language Laboratory, Computer Lab and Audio-Visual Media.

In addition to its regular courses, the Institute also runs Evening Classes for vocational programmes in Applied Linguistics, Translation and Mass Communication & Journalism. Apart from these the Institute offers the following job-oriented courses with focus on efficiency in Hindi:

- Hindi Publishing Techniques & Proof Reading.
- Media and Creative Writing
- Sales & Marketing Skills
- Media and the Art of Communication

The Hindi programme for foreign students was started in 1971 at the Delhi centre; it has been running uninterruptedly as a Self-financing course. Since 1991, under the Promotion of Hindi Abroad Scheme (PHA Scheme), students from foreign countries began coming to Agra to study Hindi on Government of India scholarships. Beginning from 1991 up to 2010, about one thousand (1000) students from various foreign countries – Afganistan, Armenia, Bulgaria, Belarus, Chad, Czech Republic, Fiji, Guyana, Georgia, Hungary, Italy,

Indonesia, Japan, Lithuania, Mauritius, Mongolia, Russia, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Tazikistan, Uzbekistan, Vietnam, Austria, Romania, Surinam, China, Trinidad & Tobago, Kazakistan, South Korea, North Korea, America, Canada and Poland - have studied Hindi in the Institute's Department of International Hindi Teaching located at Agra.

The alumni of the Institute are teaching Hindi in various countries, for instance, Francesca Orsini is working in School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), London; Maria Nejyesi is in Hungary; and Km. Atila is in Sri Lanka. Mr. Brasil, Smt. Chandima (Indian Culture Centre, Sri Lanka). Three alumni of the Institute are in Kalaria University, Sri Lanka; Tej Prasad Khedu is in Surinam; and many are teaching in Hamburg (Germany), Seoul (South Korea), Budapest (Hungary), Reading Open University (London) and other places. They are also engaged in other Hindi-related jobs.

The following teachers of the Institute have done teaching assignments in foreign countries: Dr. Sher Bahadur Jha in Trinidad; Dr. Uma Shankar Satish in Surinam; Prof. Suraj Bhan Singh in Romania; Dr. Mohan Lal Sir in Finland; Dr. Thakur Das in Cuba; Late Dr. Dharm Pal Gandhi in South Korea and Japan; Prof. Ravi Gupta in Poland and Hungary; Late Dr. Manju Gupta in Poland; Prof. C.E. Jeeni in China; Prof. Shrish Chand Jaiswal in England and Russia; Prof. Ashwani Kumar Srivastava in Italy and Japan; Prof. Devendra Shukla in Bulgaria; Prof. Arun Chaturvedi in Japan; Dr. Geeta Sharma in Russia and Japan; Dr. M. Gyanam in South Korea; and Dr. Anita Ganguli in Finland.

The Central Institute of Hindi (Kendriya Hindi Sansthan), Agra is the biggest international centre of Hindi teaching in the world, where foreign students are given intense training in Hindi teaching through modern techniques by well-qualified teachers.
